

MODIFICATION PROPOSAL

Extension of Transitional AQ Appeal timetable

Date: 22nd April 1996

Proposed Implementation

Date: 25th April 1996

SUMMARY

The current transition document allows shippers to notify TransCo of any errors they are aware of in the AQ's for Supply Meter Points within their portfolio that was issued on 12th March. TransCo will investigate any error notice and if it proves to be valid will amend the AQ in line with the rules contained within the Principal Document (G1.6.8(b) and G1.6.10). The current deadline for Shippers to use this process is 12th April 1996. This modification requests an extension to 3rd May 1996.

JUSTIFICATION:

Due to delays in portfolio reconciliation additional time is required to complete the process of reconciling AQ's.

AREA OF NETWORK CODE CONCERNED

Transition Document Part II 7.6.1

NATURE OF PROPOSAL

The proposal is a request to extend the deadline from 12th April to 3rd May 1996 for which shippers can lodge an AQ appeal for Supply Meter Points in their portfolio. Appeals submitted in accordance with the provisions of Transitional Document Part II 7.6 will be investigated by TransCo, and if a revised AQ is agreed Transportation charges will be adjusted accordingly.

This proposal only effects the provisions contained within the Transitional document Part II 7.6.

PURPOSE OF PROPOSAL

This proposal is required to permit shippers an extended period in which to lodge an appeal for this Supply Meter Point AQ's that were issued to them in their 12th March 1996 portfolio.
